Complete the following:

The Lexington Sunrise Rotary Club's
BB&T BALLOON RALLY
July 3-4, 2009 in Lexington, VA

You are invited to participate in the 13th Annual July 4th Balloon Rally in Lexington, VA. As in previous years, it will be on the parade ground of the Virginia Military Institute (VMI). Festivities and reserved hot air balloon rides will begin late afternoon on Friday, July 3, where thousands will be drawn to the excitement of the holiday, with live music, children's activities, and various displays including craft and food sales. On Saturday, beginning at about 2 pm, festivities continue, with added features, culminating in a spectacular fireworks display at dusk.

Substantial publicity will be generated with radio and TV announcements, newspaper features, and street banners. Multi-page inserts in the local newspapers will show what can be expected and the vendors that are participating.

This event is managed by the Lexington Sunrise Rotary Club Foundation and the Lexington Sunrise Rotary Club, both being non-profit organizations, for the benefit of Rockbridge County youth and supported by contributions from many local business organizations. A major contributor is the BB&T Bank, which accounts for the name "BB&T Balloon Rally"

Action Required

To reserve booth space this year, please return the enclosed application form along with the indicated fee prior to June 16, 2009. If you have a question, please contact Dick Rathmell at rathmell@ntelos.net or by phone (540-463-1640).
